OCTOBER 2024

TUE 15 LIMA – TRUJILLO (L)

AM

Transfer from the hotel to the airport to take your flight Lima/ Trujillo.

Upon arrival in Trujillo, reception and assistance at the airport.

Transfer to the Moche Valley, where you be greeted by a traditional family descended from the ancient settlers who built the impressive Pyramids of the Sun and the Moon, the center of power on the northern coast of Peru during Moche times. After visit the impressive Pyramids of the Sun and the Moon, the center of power in the Trujillo Valley during the Moche times. Notice the amazing group of adobe frescoes on one of the walls of the Temple of the Moon, unearthed by archaeologists.

We continue towards Huanchaco, an ancient fisherman's cove where the ancient boats called "Caballitos de Totorá" will be appreciated. The ancient tradition of artisanal fishing is maintained. Lunch in Huanchaco and in the afternoon visit the ancient citadel of Chan Chan, whose extension is 18 km² approx. Enter the Nik-An Palace, located in the south-west part of Chan Chan touring its ceremonial squares, worshippers, reservoirs, barns, cemeteries, etc. Transfer to the hotel. Overnight.

WED 16 TRUJILLO / CHICLAYO (B, L)

Transfer to Chiclayo accompanied by a representative of the Company.

Located 34 Km. north of Trujillo, in the Chicama valley.

On route, you will visit the pyramid of El Brujo rises about 98 feet above the desert and covers an area of approximately 330 feet by 330 feet. It was built by thousands of adobe bricks. Its walls are covered with beautiful polychrome reliefs and murals that represent war motifs, divinities, animals, plants and fishing nets. A few years ago it was discovered inside the pyramid, a well-preserved tattooed mummy corresponding to a young woman of the Moche royalty, called the Lady of Cao, which is exhibited in the Museum of the Lady of Cao.

Then, you will visit the brand new Royal Tombs Museum and discover the historical richness of the place. Transfer to the hotel. Overnight.
